

Fact Sheet

Quick reference for press, presenters, and partners.

Full name	Robert Reddrick
Roles	Resident Musical Director, Drummer, Arranger, Composer, Audio Engineer, Educator
Skills	Music direction & conducting · Composing & arranging · Live & studio engineering · Recording, mixing & mastering · MIDI programming & sampling · Drums (primary), guitar & keyboard
Based in	Chicago, Illinois
Current position	Resident Musical Director, Black Ensemble Theater (since 2009)
At Black Ensemble	A central creative force since 1991
Training	Music Department, Columbia College Chicago
Band	The R2Project
Major honors	7x Black Theater Alliance Award recipient; 5x Jeff Award nominee
Also honored	Porchlight Music Theatre "Scene Changers" (ICONS)
Available for	Musical direction, arranging, live performance, clinics, workshops, brand partnerships
Booking	rreddrick@blackensemble.org
Website	www.robertreddrick.com

ABOUT THE BLACK ENSEMBLE THEATER

Founded in 1976 by Jackie Taylor, the Black Ensemble Theater is one of the most prominent African American theater companies in the nation. It draws roughly 50,000 patrons a year to its 50,000-sq-ft cultural center and has been named among the top 25 theaters in the United States by the Britannica Almanac. Robert has been a central creative force there since 1991, and Resident Musical Director since 2009.

HOW TO DESCRIBE ROBERT (APPROVED LANGUAGE)

- "Award-winning music director, drummer, and arranger."
- "Music Director of Chicago's Black Ensemble Theater."
- "Seven-time Black Theater Alliance Award recipient and seven-time Jeff Award nominee."

MEDIA CONTACT

Booking & press: rreddrick@blackensemble.org

Website: www.robertreddrick.com

Press kit: www.robertreddrick.com/press-kit.html